"MOMENT IN PEKING" by Lin Yutang portrays a charming family as humanly understandable as the families in our own country. In it the Chinese way of life becomes as understandable as our own, painted with a skillful brush and lighted by the author's bubbling sense of fun. The living quality of this book goes far and above the individual lives, the changing society and tragedy of war as this great picture of modern China sweeps on to its magnificent climax.

Hobby Show to Feature School's Open-House Day

A number of hobbies have been lined up for the open house day, May 8, at Lomita elementary school, when there will be separate displays of adult and children's hobbies. Anyone who has a hobby to exhibit is asked to get in touch with Mrs. H. E. Crum, chairman, as soon as possible, telephone Lomita 590. Miss Harriett Michaelis, principal, has set aside a room for the hobby exhibit and is arranging for tables and cases for the display. Much interest is being shown in this exhibit and it is hoped to make it an annual affair.

"THE NAZARENE" by Sholem Asch: The incomparable yet incomplete Gospel narrative of the life of Jesus of Nazareth has again offered a challenge to a great writer. Critics are hailing this new novel based on the life of Christ as a masterpiece. It is a novel of cities as well as men, of religions and cultures as well as characters, alive with personality and intense from beginning to end. The old story is retold magnificently as it was seen by a Roman, by Judas and by a Jewish student, with rich historical background and vivid narrative.

"ATTORNEY FOR THE PEOPLE" by Rupert Hughes gives us the first biography of Thomas E. Dewey. It relates in detail the main events of his early life in the Midwest, his many experiences as assistant United States attorney and his procedure in handling his famous racketeer cases. The careful preparations and legal strategy which have been responsible for his success are fully outlined.

Antiques and handwork will be welcomed by the chairman. Parents and all people interested in the schools are invited to visit the classes from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. At 5 p. m. and at 8 p. m. there will be puppet shows, P. T. A. will serve hot and cold dishes and hot and cold drinks and there will be a country store. Miss Michaelis extends a cordial invitation to the public and especially the former pupils of Lomita's first school who no doubt will make the occasion a "homecoming" affair.

"FROM CRATE TO CLIPPER WITH CAPTAIN MUSICK" by William S. Grooth: One of Captain Musick's close friends, associated with him in the development of trans-oceanic flying, has told the story of his notable career. Simply and unpretentiously as he lived and dramatically as he died, the picture unfolds. Like other great flyers, Lindbergh and Corrigan, "Ed" Musick's history is almost entirely about his one-consuming interest. He had neither the temperament nor time to be a picturesque figure. He was tinkering with planes before he was 18 and devoted all his energy to their mastery.

"CAPTAIN ABBEY AND CAPTAIN JOHN," an all-around the world biography: Here is the chronicle of a great captain and a great sea-faring mother from Maine who flourished in the time when a "Down Easter" was a citizen of the world. It tells by letters and diaries how a husband and wife spent their lives in a sailing ship over the seven seas; how their boys were born, raised and schooled there. It tells how the family endured a storm, earthquake and a tidal wave off the coast of South America, how they moved among grand sites in romantic cities and how they scoured the desolate waters off Africa searching for a lost cabin boy.
